What is the Cheshire Landlord Accreditation Scheme?

The Cheshire Landlord Accreditation Scheme (CLAS) is a voluntary scheme that has been set up to raise standards across the private rented sector. The scheme identifies those landlords/letting agents who provide good housing management and property standards by giving them a market advantage over non-accredited landlords.

How do I become accredited?

You will need to complete a Cheshire Landlord Accreditation Scheme application form. You will also need to provide current and appropriate test certification for each property you hold and agree to meet the scheme's Code of Standards.

Following an application to join the scheme, the Council will carry out property inspections of a sample of the landlords property portfolio. Landlords who become accredited need to attend a Landlord Training course, arranged by the Scheme operators, within 12 months of becoming accredited.

Is there a cost?

If your property is a licensable House of Multiple Occupation [HMO] you will still need a HMO Licence and a licence fee will be payable. However, once accredited, a discount will be applied to any new HMO Licence. Please note: that licence fees will vary between the three local authority areas.

If your property needs to be inspected for the purpose of advertising on the University's Student Accommodation List, a fee will be charged (except properties in Warrington).

How long does membership of the scheme last?
