Crossing Borders

We have an opportunity to bring Channel 4 to our unique, cross-border community in Chester and North Wales. This bid is from two, diverse nations and is built on the close working relationship developed in recent years by councils, business and the wider community on both sides of the border. We have a flourishing, creative sector and we want Channel 4 to break the mould, as it has done before, by moving to a dynamic, forward-looking region.

Why cross Borders?

4 ten extremely good reasons

We hope that you'll quickly appreciate the very real and practical advantages of taking the bold step to locate your new HQ across borders.

A working population of 289,200

1 Diversity

Chester and Wrexham represent the diversity of experience of modern Britain. Here you will find cultures and lifestyles of every kind. We represent an open-minded, contemporary European community where language and heritage make us unique. Here you will find a relaxed, safe, welcoming and inquisitive atmosphere which is the perfect breeding ground for creativity.

2 Uniquely binding two nations together.

Where else could you better deliver on your promise of being '4 all of the UK' than by locating your new HQ at the heart of a compact area that encapsulates and unites two different countries? In these times of increasing separation, our bid delivers a message of unity.

3 State of the art office space

You need effective and efficient office space; right away. As you will see, we have a choice of spaces, each of which is distinctive, digitally enabled and of high quality design, and each can be tailored to meet your exact needs.

4 We are big enough to be interesting but small enough for you to make a difference.

Locating in Chester gives you a unique range of practical advantages, as you will appreciate from this document. And in addition, you will occupy a unique position in the City and immediate region – a leader in shaping and helping to deliver future ideas and positive change for your neighbours and community.

5 A great place to be

The area is often voted as one of the best places to live and visit in the UK, with high living standards, great schools in both the public and private sectors and a host of historical and contemporary attractions from the historic city centre, Roman amphitheatre, the Pontcysyllte aqueduct World heritage site, Chester Zoo and shopping at Cheshire Oaks.

6 Connected, connected, connected

We enjoy a strategic location at the very heart of the United Kingdom. Our communication links are second to none and whilst our businesses benefit from our close proximity to North West major cities, the quality of life here is our greatest attraction. Recognised as the most vibrant economy in the North West, the area scores highly for health, wellbeing and happiness and is leading the way in dynamism and opportunity, benefitting from its place at the heart of the Northern powerhouse.

7 We are going places

With a diverse and successful cross-border economy, shared labour market and GVA equal to half the entire Welsh economy. We generate around £20M GVA pa.

8 Creative

The area has a strong cultural identity – defined by its rich heritage setting fused with modern creative sectors. We have a strong will and independent spirit together with a highly skilled, committed and passionate community of businesses, venues, educators and participants.

9 Yesterday, today and tomorrow

Chester and North Wales have become a richly mixed community of citizens and visitors wanting to share in all of the opportunities that the area has to offer and, while we celebrate our fantastic heritage we are successfully reinventing ourselves, we have a burgeoning creative industry and are refreshing our cultural offer at pace and scale.

10 And television friendly

We are home to some of the biggest programmes in the Channel 4 portfolio, including the on-screen home of Hollyoaks, The Secret Life of the Zoo and Britain's Most Historic Towns.

Cross Borders 4 our place at the heart of everything

Connected to London, UK and Beyond

Chester is well located and highly connected. Chester Railway Station has grown significantly in recent years and is one of the busiest stations in the North West. Over 4 million people used the station in 2017 and the twice hourly rail service to London puts the capital just 2 hours away.

Chester is the primary gateway between Cheshire, Warrington and North Wales and acts as the focal point of the Mersey-Dee area. It offers connectivity to North Wales, Crewe, Ireland, London and Manchester as well as providing excellent connections into Liverpool City Region.

Our rail links will be further improved with new franchise arrangements, and journey times to London will be cut to under two hours in the next two years. HS2 connectivity will provide a further step change in access to London and the rest of the UK and plans have been agreed to capitalise on HS2 to also improve links across North Wales.

We have excellent motorway links and have two major international airports within 45 minutes drive, as well as a local airport at Hawarden, less than 5 miles away.

Digital connections

The area has excellent 4G and superfast broadband coverage, and an increasing coverage of ultrafast provision including FibreSpeed, a high-performance fibre network connecting North Wales to the global digital economy. In the area, we are rolling out free public wifi within our towns and cities and can install high performance fibre to any premises you may consider.

Connected to creative ecosystems

The creative and digital community in Chester and Wrexham is strong and growing. we are home to a well-developed creative cluster which is recognised as being the best in the region and having the potential for significant growth. And we are also closely connected to the talent and capabilities of both Manchester and Liverpool. Chester has already demonstrated that graduates and talent from these cities can be drawn to both live and work in the city, attracted by the quality of life alternative to big cities.

Connected to future talent

Within a 30-mile radius is one of the largest concentrations of Higher Education Institutions in Europe, with 15 HEI's, a combined student body of 200,000 and a total undergraduate population of 160,000.

Come 4 our creative television production ecosystem

Hollyoaks is Channel 4's biggest Nations and Regions commissioned programme. First aired in 1995 and on broadcast five episodes a week Hollyoaks is one of the UK's long-standing dramas.

The BAFTA nominated Secret Life of the Zoo is filmed at Chester Zoo - Britain's most popular zoo hosting 1.9 million visitors every year.

Chester was also home to the first episode of Britain's Most Historic Towns produced by IWC and broadcast on Channel 4 in 2018.

Born Naughty? The four-part series featured the paediatrician Dr Ravi Jayaram from the Countess of Chester Hospital helping children with behavioural problems.

North Wales has provided the setting for Severn Screen's crime drama Hidden (Craith) that was filmed on location in Snowdonia and broadcast on S4C and BBC Wales.

Tŷ Pawb

We have a well-developed independent television/digital production community on our doorstep, including MediaCityUK Salford, Lime Picture's Campus at Childwall, Liverpool and Littlewoods Studios – all within a 45-minute travel time by road and rail. As such, our location provides extraordinarily strong agglomeration benefits.

We provide the setting for a wide range of TV productions from drama, features, reality TV to news broadcasts. We are home to some of the biggest and longest running shows on Channel 4, including Hollyoaks and the BAFTA nominated Secret Life of the Zoo.

We have long-established relationships with television production companies including Lime Pictures dating back to 1995 when Hollyoaks was first filmed in Chester and continue to provide filming locations across Cheshire to enable successful production of the popular TV show.

The area is a creative hub, home to a range of creative businesses including Visual Impact Northern – a leading business specialising in the rental and sales of broadcast and video production equipment and Picture House

Films, creating professional high-quality films and working with independent and broadcast media companies throughout the UK.

We are also home to start-ups, located in our co-working hub Industry situated in the creative canal side quarter, and some of the North West's top digital businesses including, Click Consulting, Prodo and Clicky creating award winning digital experiences for major companies, to architects creating places that inspire. In Wrexham, there are a range of production companies including Story Jar, Follow Films and 73 Degree Media.

There is growing demand for incubator space for the creative industries with new facilities being developed by social enterprises to provide co-working facilities for start-ups in the area, particularly those working in the visual arts.

According to NESTA there are 10,245 creative businesses in Chester, Wrexham, Liverpool and Manchester

Come 4 our Talent

The skills levels in Chester and Wrexham can more than successfully meet the needs of Channel 4 and also draw on a wider pool of talent located in North Wales, Liverpool and Manchester.

- Of the 461,000 people in this area, 107,900 are aged under 25.
- The employment rate of 16-64 year olds in Cheshire West is 73.6%. In Wrexham this is 82.1%. Over 43% of working-age people in Cheshire West are qualified to NVQ level 4 and above
- There is a net in-flow of younger workers which illustrates how attractive the area is for graduates from surrounding areas.

Today's talent pool

Our regional skills and educational attainment levels are very high on average, but we are an area of stark contrasts. We already innovate to provide access and involvement with creativity and culture to boost outcomes for the most deprived. Channel 4's presence and effect would help inspire and encourage both our most and our least engaged young audiences.

We have the talent that you need and the communities that you can help us continue to inspire.

There is extremely good access to a significant travel to work catchment area, which further boosts the available workforce skills base.

Manchester and Liverpool are within a 45 minute drive time of Chester City Centre.

Statistically, there are approximately 62,000 potential employees in the Arts, Entertainment and Recreation Sector within a 60 minute travel time, with approximately 13,000 specifically involved in television, motion pictures, radio and sound recording and creative arts and entertainment activities.

Creative clusters in the UK

Type of cluster

- High concentration and growth
- High growth

Source: ONS, Business Structure Database; Nesta analysis.

Chester is a high concentration and growth area for creativity and our immediate is the largest concentration and growth cluster in the UK.

There are over 1,000 people studying for a creative first degree in North Wales Universities.

There is also an education specialism in the Creative Sector right on our doorstep in Chester and Wrexham.

Glyndŵr University's School of Creative Arts provides dedicated studio and workshop spaces for Applied Arts, Fine Art, Animation, Film and Photography, Graphic Design and Illustration.

- Students gain experience working on Glyndwr.tv, taking opportunities to lead live sessions and get involved in production. The School of Creative Arts is also home to Calon FM, a community radio station with an FM license.
- The Terry Hands Studio, based on the Wrexham Campus, is a performing arts space used by our theatre and TV students. The studio is named after the founder of the Liverpool Everyman Theatre and the previous director of the Royal Shakespeare Company, in recognition of his role transforming Theatr Clwyd to the most successful theatre in Wales.

Glyndŵr University's Centre for the Creative Industries. The £5m Centre for Creative Industries opened in 2011 and supports courses in art, music, journalism, media, TV, film and theatre, it has become home to BBC Cymru Wales in North East Wales providing new production facilities for its staff, guests and contributors. The centre features state-of-the-art TV and radio studios, 3D workshops, design studios, IT suites, Apple training suites and post-production audio and visual facilities. Provides a stimulus to the development of private and spin-out businesses associated with the creative industries.

Coleg Cambria – is one of the largest further and higher education colleges in the UK with approximately 7,000 full time students and 20,000 part time students. Offers courses in creative media production, live events production and performing arts.

Cheshire College – South & West offers young people in Chester and the surrounding area an inspiring range of full-time courses and apprenticeships within the creative industries including media production, games development, visual arts, performing arts and music. This ranges from entry level through to higher level and degree programmes.

The College has also helped to break the mould in the traditionally male dominated industry with the latest WorldSkills winner Penny-Jane Prior, from Chester, who is now recognised as the best 3D Digital Game Art Student within her age group in the UK. The College also has strong links to production companies based in Manchester, with students gaining work experience at David Ellison Films filming a portfolio car advert, working on set and as runners and assistant camera operators.

The College's Games Development department has produced two Gold medallists at the prestigious WorldSkills event in 2015 and 2017. Daniel McCabe, who won in 2015, went on to represent the UK in the 2016 EuroSkills finals in Sweden and was successfully crowned best 3D game designer in Europe.

University of Chester's Department of Media offers programmes in television, radio, music production, media and film studies, advertising, photography and journalism at our campus sites in Chester and Warrington, serving more than 500 students at undergraduate, Master's and PhD levels. In 2013 the provision was ranked best in England for overall student satisfaction.

The Department has a commercial office which produces video and other media outputs commissioned by professional clients, and students are actively engaged in such productions – as well as other professional work experience opportunities – as part of their studies.

The International Screen School Manchester (ISSM), led by Manchester Metropolitan University (MMU), is a project intended to develop interdisciplinary talent to support the North West's creative and digital industries. It will provide multi-disciplinary undergraduate, post-graduate and apprenticeship programmes in screen and post-screen media—and it will also be a hub for new businesses and innovators.

We have established Creative Futures - a creative industries conference that brings discipline-leading experts, from Wales, the UK and the World, into North East Wales, so that their creativity and expertise can be shared with new and upcoming artists, writers, designers and performers. Organised and hosted by Wrexham Glyndŵr University, it is dedicated to developing the technical, professional and employability skills of creative individuals, and aims at broadening horizons.

Fallen Angels Dance Theatre

An emerging company based at Storyhouse, works and supports those in recovery from addiction to transform their lives, share their recovery journey through dance, performance and creativity.

Culture forms an increasingly important part of our outreach activities, ensuring that all have the opportunities to benefit from the arts in many ways:

Action Transport Theatre

Action Transport Theatre based in Ellesmere Port are recognised as national leaders and are part of the Arts Council England's National Portfolio. The company's many strands include free participation programmes, working with some of the town's most vulnerable and disadvantaged young people. These include young people with learning difficulties and who are often SEN statemented. In the last 12 months ATT's engagement programme has connected with nearly 14,000 children and young people, prioritising the least engaged communities and highest levels of social deprivation. Chester and Cheshire West Council are currently working with the company to upgrade and develop their existing building – creating a cultural centre for children, young people and their families.

Cheshire West and Chester has some of the most deprived wards in the country and Wrexham is home of some of the most deprived communities in Wales.

Vic Studios

This is an award-winning Social Enterprise in Wrexham focused on improving the lives and prospects of young people and the wider community through music. Since opening in 2016, Vic Studios has delivered in excess of 50 nationally-recognised qualifications to its users. They have been awarded Big Lottery funding to deliver sessions including DJing, music technology, video and film making. They provide professional quality rehearsal and recording facilities and access to skilled sound engineering.

Cheshire Dance

Specialises in dance and diverse practice including a considerable focus on health and wellbeing. They have recently developed a strand of work aimed at those suffering from dementia.

In addition, there are an increasing number of strong outreach initiatives focusing on areas of deprivation in Cheshire to provide focused programmes of support. We led the national campaign for social mobility in the arts using measures to widen access to the arts and creative sectors for those from less advantaged backgrounds. This included working with Michael Sheen and others. Our efforts to increase participation for all and to generate opportunities in cultural and creative practice and employment for non-traditional audiences would be significantly enhanced by the presence of a broadcaster committed to diversity and inspiration.

A place that's good 4 you

Cheshire and North Wales are renowned for our quality of life and this is the location of choice for independent and leading businesses. Our natural environment is widely recognised as one of our major assets, providing inspiration for people who live and work here, and attracting new talent and employers to the area.

Chester is a highly desirable place to live and work with attractive residential areas, quality housing ranging from affordable new housing, canal side redevelopments in central Chester, to executive homes. Our attractiveness as a place to live is enhanced by a superb range of local amenities, including excellent schools, independent shops, beautiful countryside, forests and waterways.

We have an excellent choice of state and independent schools including Kings, Queens, Abbey Gate College, Hammond, Morton, Ruthin School and St John Deane which are all rated as 'good' or 'outstanding' by Ofsted.

Last year Chester won the prestigious European Access City Award recognising that it provides access for all - regardless of age, mobility or ability - to the resources and pleasures that the city has to offer.

The average house property in the area is £187,676 which is significantly lower than the England average of £242,176.

We have the best outdoor adventure activities, within one hour of Snowdonia and the North Wales coast. Every day we enjoy thrilling mountain scenery and fascinating ancient culture and heritage. North Wales was the only place in Britain to make it into the Lonely Planet's Best in Travel in 2017.

There are a range of adventure attractions, including: Surf Snowdonia, an inland surfing lake located in the Conwy Valley, Zip World, the world's fastest and longest zip wire and Bounce Below, a subterranean playground of giant trampolines in a former slate mine deep underneath.

Blaenau Ffestiniog and Coed Llandegla the UK's leading Forest Visitor centre which is home to some of the best man-made mountain bike trails in the UK. In addition, we are home to a range of top-class attractions including Chester Zoo – the second most paid-for visitor attraction in the UK with over 1.9 million visitors annually, Cheshire Oaks (currently undergoing a £40 million expansion), Chester Races and a huge and diverse range of museums, heritage facilities, parks and outdoor attractions.

We also have an award-winning and fast-developing, diverse cultural offer including:

We have established links with national cultural organisations, including hosting the Victoria & Albert Museum’s ‘Pop Art in Print’ exhibition and home to a residency for Ronnie Scott’s 2017.

University graduates have established production companies and there is big, small and independent music and theatre locally.

Storyhouse Chester

Opened in May 2017 following a £37m investment to transform a 1930s Odeon building, Storyhouse features an 800-seat auditorium, 200-seat studio theatre, houses the city’s library as well as a restaurant, two bars and a 100-seat boutique cinema.

- The Bluedot Festival
- National Eisteddfod
- Chester Comedy Festival
- Chester International Film Festival
- Grosvenor Open Air Theatre – attracting 30,000 people per year (the most successful outside of London).
- Chester Moonlight Flicks – an open-air cinema held in the Roman Gardens
- Northwich International Street Arts Festival,

Tŷ Pawb

(meaning Everyone’s House) opened its doors in Wrexham in April 2018 and is the first centre in the UK to bring together arts, market stalls and community space to deliver a wide-ranging programme of inclusive events and activities.

- Street Level 2018 – Chester’s first visual arts festival painting live
- Wales Comic Con – celebrating everything that is great about pop culture and hosted in Wrexham
- Focus Wales – shining a spotlight on emerging talent in Wales
- Underneath the Arches – an award-winning music event held in Wrexham under the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct world heritage site.

Storyhouse

- Ground-breaking, multi-award-winning project connecting an arts organisation to a library service.
- In the first 12 months of operation, welcomed 1 million people through its doors.
- Substantial increase in Library membership – including 170% increase in junior membership.
- Embraced by all of Chester’s communities and is a model for attracting diverse users and audiences – users include the homeless, voluntary groups and charities and emerging arts and cultural organisations. It is a multigenerational venue
- that includes the very young and the elderly as well as providing all of the traditional and commercial opportunities for library, film and theatre customers.
- Full programme of community events, employment opportunities and apprenticeships, and a Young Leaders Programme, which introduces young people to a potential career in the creative industries.
- New companies and artists are emerging in Chester and the wider borough with Storyhouse providing a catalyst for further growth in the cultural sector.

“Chester is a vibrant and unique city, full of creative communities. I think it would be a fantastic choice for Channel 4.”

Peter Mearns - Chair STORYHOUSE

Crossing borders 4 state of the art office space

We have state of the art office spaces within Chester that have attracted major businesses to relocate here.

Chester prices typically range from £18 to £20 per square foot in Chester City Centre for Grade A office accommodation, comparing extremely cost effectively with other city-region areas and providing very good value for money.

We have highlighted specific sites below, each of which are available in 2019 and could accommodate both office and studio facilities, providing Channel 4 with highly specified, digitally enabled, architecturally distinctive offices as and when you need them.

HQ, 58 Nicholas Street, Chester, CH1 2NP

The premier office location in Chester

HQ is the most efficient office in Chester and the North West. It is a substantial mixed-use development comprising luxury apartments, Abode hotel, restaurants and offices. The office premises have been designed to a very high standard and benefit from large, air conditioned floorplates that allow for flexible working space planning. The building also benefits from fantastic views of Chester Racecourse.

HQ offers an outstanding opportunity to occupy a location of unequalled prominence.

The premises are located a short walk from Chester's main retail area as well as being a 5-minute drive from Chester Business Park. There are excellent travel links, being close to the A55, M53 and M56 as well as Chester Bus Station and Chester Railway Station.

Built in 2007, accommodation up to 50,000 sq ft is available. Typical floor plate is 15,000 sq ft. Fully air conditioned with feature reception area, full height glazed curtain walling, 3 passenger lifts, secure basement parking. BREEAM Very Good.

Jigsaw, Chester Business Park, Chester, CH4 9QL

A location at the heart of an international business park - home to many of the area's leading businesses

Chester Business Park is a 175-acre landscaped business environment in a natural Cheshire Green Belt environment, 1 mile south of Chester City Centre and ¼ mile north of the A55/A483 dual carriageway intersection.

Jigsaw is an expansive parcel of premium development land situated in the heart of the Park, offering Channel 4 the chance to complete the puzzle with the final development plot.

2 City Place, Chester, CH1 3BQ

A vibrant, mixed use site at the centre of the Chester Business District with an opportunity to provide bespoke accommodation.

Located in the Chester Business Quarter (CBQ), 2 City Place will provide Channel 4 with highly attractive and distinctive space in the heart of the city. The site is supported by new high quality urban squares and an enhanced canalside setting. Two of the main arterial routes into the city from the motorway network serve the CBQ as do Park and Ride facilities. It also has the additional benefit of the Shropshire Union Canal close by, providing the most attractive route into the historic core of the city centre (a 5-minute walk away) and the recognised quality benefits of working by water.

The CBQ will have flexible structured space to accommodate Channel 4 as a creative hub and provide local creative and digital communities with facilities to drop into, connect to remotely and collaborate. City Place is Chester's first BREEAM 'Excellent' rated office building including Grade A specification, and sets new standards for office space in the city with stunning architecture and modern design.

The site is in development and will provide 75,000 sq ft of Grade A office accommodation and could provide the perfect setting for a state-of-the-art studio.

Don't just take our word 4 it...

"Having worked with Channel 4 learning, we have experienced the innovative nature of the organisation's working approaches. Award winning Clicky Media has been based in Chester since our inception. Chester would be revolutionised and is crying out for an innovative organisation like Channel 4 to boost the extremely talented creative and technical skill that exists here."

Laura Hothersall - Agency Director, Clicky Media

"We are very excited to be in Chester. The city is a great base for our operation as we will be able to grow and develop here."

Will Loughnane - Director of Business Insights, Virgin Money

"Like Channel 4, we are extremely proud that Moneypenny is recognised as a creative business that is constantly pushing boundaries, both for its clients and our extraordinary staff, and we could not have chosen a better location for our stunning new offices."

Ed Reeves, Co-founder of Moneypenny
